A letter from a father to his daughter, posted on September 18, 2020 by Gerard Migeon, Founder & CEO. Probably because I do this work, and because I'm a father too, a friend of mine confided the following letter he wrote some time ago to his own daughter. With his permission, I am sharing it because I was touched by the kindness of his sentiments and the depth of his concerns for his daughter, and I believe it can touch many young women in the same way it must have touched her.
