Patriots: The Men Who Started the American Revolution ...

This book starts with focus on the men of "Pre-Revolution", rather than starting off with the event itself, and progresses on through to the unbelievable, against all odds - victory at Yorktown. These are the Patriots who first inspired the men who made the eventual movement happen; those "first forefathers" that put their necks squarely within range of the noose and told the devil to take the hindmost.

After 20 seasons, the Patriots are facing an uncertain future. Tom Brady started 283 games at quarterback for the franchise and for the first time since his injury in 2008 and suspension in 2016, they have to look elsewhere. This time, though, it's for the long run. As longtime Patriots fans know, finding a great quarterback isn't easy.

These 14 quarterbacks started for the Patriots before Tom ...
