The Redemption Manual makes reference to the Bible, and if one is coming from a place other than Christianity, let this not discourage one from discovering the truth, for there is only one God, and to denounce the existence of God, or to believe we are more than God, is the very essence of how these circumstances came about to being in the first place. We are not here to rule over one another, to police one another, or to benefit over the enslavement of entire races.
