However we can't find any reference to this “new version” anywhere in BSA publications such as the insignia guide or anywhere else. Everything I can see in the BSA documentation is pointing to a rectangular lion badge worn beneath the other badges below the pocket. And it looks like that badge was a fairly recent addition in 2018.

My son is going to be awarded his Star Rank patch at our next Court of Honor. His grandfather has sent him his old Star rank patch from the 70's. My son wants to know if he can wear that on his uniform instead of the current patch that he is going to be awarded? In have read the statement in the Guide to Insignia but I'm not 100% sure on how it applies in this situation. Thanks!
