Sartre, "The Wall" They pushed us into a big white room and I began to blink because the light hurt my eyes. Then I saw a table and four men behind the table, civilians, looking over the papers. They had bunched another group of prisoners in the back and we had to cross the whole room to join them.

Sartre, "The Wall"

This early collection of stories and Sartre's first novel NAUSEA are the best fictions he ever wrote. THE WALL, the title story, is outstanding and the remaining yarns are very good. How interesting that such a prolific author wrote his best fiction at the very beginning of his literary career.
